Temasek Management Services Announces a New Centre for Asian Insights and Leadership Development

TMS Academy and Human Capital Leadership Institute (HCLI) will merge to form a new centre of excellence to tackle growing leadership development needs, with a mission of developing leaders in Asia and beyond.

SINGAPORE, 28 June 2017 – Temasek Management Services (TMS) announced today that TMS Academy, the integrated leadership development arm of TMS, and the Human Capital Leadership Institute (HCLI) will merge effective 1 July 2017. The new organisation will retain the HCLI name and operate as a subsidiary of TMS, with Ms Wong Su-Yen as the CEO.

With the on-going support of Singapore's Ministry of Manpower (MOM) and the Singapore Economic Development Board (EDB), the new HCLI will offer an expanded portfolio of leadership development programmes for executives, ranging from emerging leaders to company directors. HCLI's extensive proprietary research on Asian leadership and actionable insights will continue to inform programme design.

Dr. Tan Chin Nam, Chairman of TMS said, "The new organisation launches at an opportune time, with Singapore's focus on lifelong learning, upskilling and talent development. With a vibrant network of 35,000 partners and alumni and the synergies of TMS and HCLI coming together, the new HCLI is well positioned to further its mission of building Asian leaders who drive innovation and growth, here in Singapore and beyond."

Mr. Sunny Verghese, Chairman of HCLI's Board of Directors added, "Our goal is to be the leading centre of excellence for developing executive leadership and impactful knowledge, in, from and for Asia. Our programmes equip executives and Directors with insights necessary for leading across borders."

In addition to Mr. Verghese, Directors of the new HCLI Board are:

- Mr. Eddie Ahmed, Chairman, President and CEO, MassMutual International,
- Dr. Beh Swan Gin, Chairman Singapore Economic Development Board,
- Ms. Goh Swee Chen, Chairman Shell Companies in Singapore,
- Mr. Aubeck Kam, Permanent Secretary Singapore Ministry of Manpower
- Mr. Vinod Kumar, Managing Director and CEO Tata Communications Ltd Group; and
- Ms. Jacqueline Wong, CEO Temasek Management Services.

Combining the two entities will result in one unique organisation with a broader reach across industries to address the demand for leadership development and strategic human capital management capabilities in and for, Asia.

The new HCLI will bring to Asian business leaders the best current thinking from global and regional academic thought leaders, blended with unique insights from leading policy makers and practitioners. The new centre will continue to design intellectually rigorous programmes, which are focused on practical and actionable learnings that will stay with participants through their leadership journeys.

About the Human Capital Leadership Institute (HCLI)

Based in Singapore, the Human Capital Leadership Institute is a centre of excellence that facilitates the acceleration of leadership development and strategic human capital management capabilities in Asia. Through its efforts, HCLI aims to develop global leaders with a strong understanding of leading in Asia, as well as to build Asian leaders with the ability to lead on the global stage. The institute achieves this by driving Asia-specific research and insights, creating industry-relevant executive development programmes and fostering rich networks between thought leaders in business, government and academia.

With the support of the Singapore Ministry of Manpower and the Singapore Economic Development Board, HCLI is a subsidiary of Temasek Management Services, which is wholly owned by Temasek Holdings (Private) Limited. HCLI offers a broad suite of leadership development solutions and research. The institute has alumni that comprise company directors and emerging leaders across multiple industries and geographies. HCLI has the unique ability to bring together global thinkers to share perspectives on understanding Asia, successfully doing business in Asia and the implications on leadership and human capital strategies for Asia.
